

SUCCEED THROUGH CHANGE WITH VALUE-DRIVEN HEALTH INFORMATION MANAGEMENT LEADERSHIP

Every day, health systems like yours face challenges that can make it more difficult to move your organization forward profitably. Challenges around payment reform and the rapid adoption of technologies; creating a higher priority of the functions within a medical records department. This department, now more than ever, has an impact on ensuring proper reimbursement and compliance. The methods and best practices for the past 30 years have changed, and it is important to give departmental leaders the tools and insight to make those alterations correctly.

Whether you need interim help or are looking for that next great hire to lead your health information management (HIM) team, our solution will assist with change management, initiate strategic directives, and drive overall departmental performance. Our solution will help you:

- Gain better understanding of strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats through a complete global review
- Redefine the way health information is collected, processed, used, stored, and retrieved
- Provide strategic direction, oversight, planning and communication to meet and exceed expectations through benchmarks and KPIs
- Identify long-term performance improvement opportunities in operations management including workflow restructuring
- Offer knowledge, education and training for areas including electronic health records, privacy and security, coding, and more
- Create efficiencies in release of information / transcription management
- Work with key stakeholders to eliminate bottlenecks to improve productivity
- Create systems and methods to improve collaboration and performance as a team

Times of transformation require change agents: people with the vision, expertise, and leadership skills necessary to lead transformation. Harmony Healthcare's HIM Leadership solution will redefine how medical information is acquired, analyzed, and protected, all vital to providing quality patient care.
