AI-Powered Abstraction. Human-Guided Precision.

Cancer registrars are stretched thin by growing caseloads, hundreds of evolving NAACCR data fields, and shifting compliance standards across CoC, SEER, and NPCR. The work is critical, but too much of it is spent hunting through medical records before clinical judgment even enters the picture. Harmony flips that equation.

Before a registrar ever opens a chart, Harmony's AI engine has already done the heavy lifting.

The system reads clinical documentation and pre-populates NAACCR fields, turning hours of manual abstraction into a focused review-and-confirm workflow.

Registrars spend their time where it matters: applying clinical expertise, resolving edge cases, and ensuring quality, not copying data out of pathology reports.

Always Current. Always complete. Harmony maintains a living, continuously enriched field library with allowable codes, format rules, and compliance requirements pulled directly from the NAACCR standard. When requirements change, the platform reflects it.	Organized around the way you work Fields are grouped by clinical context: demographics, staging, treatment, and outcomes, so registrars navigate naturally. Every field carries its extraction context, allowed values, and compliance flags inline.	Enterprise-ready from day one Built on Palantir Foundry, Harmony delivers role-based access, full audit trails, and organizational-level governance out of the box, so your registry meets the strictest security and privacy standards without bolting on afterthoughts.	Built for Compliance. Built for what's next. Aligned with CoC, SEER, and NPCR standards, with the flexibility to adapt as requirements evolve. Confident compliance, Continuous readiness.
